Internal auditors provide assurance to the board and senior management on the effectiveness of governance, risk management and control processes. Performing this role effectively requires internal auditors to communicate at a high standard and use that ability to build relationships with a range of stakeholders. By reporting clearly and concisely, internal auditors convey confidence that their assessments and insights are of a high quality and credible. In this Audit communication master class, audit professionals will learn and apply best-in-class practices in audit communication planning, developing and presenting audit reports, and monitoring, aggregating and reporting on audit results.
