

P&A
Grant Thornton

Meet our newest partners

July 2020

We proudly introduce our two new partners who will make P&A Grant Thornton stronger and better.

For more than 30 years, P&A Grant Thornton has been providing service of the highest quality to its clients. Recognized as a leader in professional services, we continue to ignite a culture of creativity, agility, and innovation. As we embrace the trends of tomorrow today, we proudly announce our newest Partners in our Business Processing Solutions and Tax Advisory and Compliance: Elano C. Marcelo and Nikkolai F. Canceran

As both gentlemen join the Partnership, Elano and Nikkolai are committed to exploring and breaking new grounds in accounting and in the business community. They are likewise dedicated to delivering excellent service to their new clients.

Elano C. Marcelo

Partner, Business Processing Solutions

A 'balik-P&Aer,' Elie first joined P&A in 1995 in the Audit & Assurance Division. His work experiences include conducting financial audit, due diligence, business process reviews, and fraud investigations. He then moved to join the shared services industry working for a top commercial bank and a global law firm where he headed the financial reporting, finance and accounting, procurement and business process re-engineering operations. He came back to P&A in 2017 to join the Business Process Solutions Division where he was tasked to manage the staff augmentation engagements and concurrently leads its Critical Support Unit.

Presently, Elie is the Executive Vice-President and Managing Director of P&A Grant Thornton Outsourcing.

Elie earned his accounting degree from Colegio de San Juan de Letran and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Nikkolai F. Canceran

Partner, Tax Advisory and Compliance

He began his professional career in the Audit and Assurance Division in 2007 and, a year later, he transferred to the Tax Division.

Nikkolai has gained extensive experience in providing tax advisory, tax compliance, due diligence audit, and tax outsourcing services to local and multinational companies.

In addition, he has significant involvement in conducting transfer pricing studies for many clients.

Nikkolai is presently a Director in the Tax Advisory and Compliance Division. He is a regular speaker in seminars organized by the Firm and by professional organizations. He also participates in thought leadership initiatives of the Firm to promote compliance with tax rules.

Nikkolai graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor's degree in Accountancy from Far Eastern University and is a Certified Public Accountant.

