Notes: General Staff Meeting 2017

Reaching greater heights together since 1988.

“No idea is too small. All ideas have the potential to change the world.”

Announcements will be made for this year's Staff Meeting, but for now... think of what you want to see next, and let's talk about it soon.

Notes: General Staff Meeting 2017

What do
you want to see next?

WE ARE BETTER TOGETHER.

It's time for changes!

The Annual General Staff Meeting (GSM) held last July 28, 2018 at the Makati Sports Club, Makati City sparked a number of changes for our FY 2017-2018.

As announced, the Practice Support Services Personnel now can now enjoy a 10-minute Grace Period.

Other significant changes within our fiscal year, as addressed during the GSM, include the enhancement of our Performance Management System (PMS).

Our petition for the expansion of our Health Benefit to our immediate family members have been catered. Our IT tool and infrastructure have also been reassessed and reved-up.

Indeed, it is high time for changes. High time to reaching greater heights and to be better together!

Setting the stage for the future.

From day one, we were meant to make a big difference.

Ben R. Punongbayan
Founder

Joe G. Araullo
Co-founder

We did it, Ben. And I feel emotional tonight.

Boy! We were indeed bold and audacious. We still had no clients then - but we began to build a nice and state-of-the-art office and looked for the best talents

Yes, we picked the right people to work with and continue to do so. That people policy remains at our core and most important success factor.

Together with our people, we sought and made things happen despite the challenges.

Our competitors were saying we will not survive more than three months.

But look at us. Tonight, we are celebrating our 30th anniversary - a testimony that we have stood the test of time and have grown bigger and stronger.

You were right, Ben, when you said P&A is the “Cadillac of the accounting profession,” clearly, we are second to none.

ON THE SPOTLIGHT

Turning 30 years old is an important moment for us. On behalf of all the partners, I would like to extend my deepest thank you to everyone who celebrated with us.

Look at what we have accomplished together! From seven staff members to a force of more than 900 people today; from a little firm that could to setting the stage for the future. We have truly come a long way. We can take pride in knowing that we are now recognized as one of the leaders in our profession and in this competitive industry.

So, thank you. All of these will never be possible without your invaluable support and loyalty throughout the decades. Your unwavering love for P&A has filled our Firm with unlimited growth, possibilities and opportunities to reach greater potential.

Exciting developments are ahead, and we invite you to join us in our transformational journey towards unlimited future.

Thank you for growing together with us.

Marivic C. Españó
Chairperson & CEO

We, at P&A Grant Thornton, will face these challenges head on and remain steadfast in our aspirations to grow.

From the Status Quo, we will move forward with our clients and people and shift to Status-Go mode.

We will take on the challenge of leading the change.

THE LITTLE FIRM THAT COULD.

Thirty (30) years ago, two respected professionals shared a dream -

Ben Punongbayan and Joe Araullo.

Through the years, the passion of our Founders for quality work, excellent service to clients, and the familial treatment for its people have been the hallmarks of our success.

These have been nurtured and passed on to the next generation of partners and leaders. With these, let us continue the commitment carry our legacy to greater heights, and seize the opportunities and challenges.

25/

As we celebrate this important landmark in our journey, we see doors opening wide to the future that awaits - UNLIMITED possibilities and opportunities to grow further with our clients, and with the communities we are parts of.

Thank you for growing together with us.
Cheers to unlimited growth and potential.

We hope you enjoyed the powerful performances of the talented ABS-CBN artists - Angeline Quinto, Daryl Ong, Darren Espanto, Kiana Valenciano and Tron Dancers.

“I would like to have an unlimited supply of branded shoes - rubber shoes, manolos, sebagos, etc. - so I can have slick pairs on any travel.”

“Granting all other things that I have now is present albeit limited, it would be happiness and contentment in life. If one is happy and contented, all other things will just fall into place. One need not be frustrated over petty nuances and greater patience and understanding follow suit. With being content, there would be no need for comparisons and unnecessary insecurities are eliminated which only makes a person counter-productive.”

WORD CENTRAL

We have a beautiful language, that we often neglect, worse, we often feel ashamed of.

Don't you agree, we always equate being "learned" to being able to speak a foreign language, than on being fluent with our mother tongue?

Let's change that today, fatten up your Filipino vocabulary with these buzz words. Let us be proud of our own mother tongue and continue our heritage.

The Weekend Girl

BPS/Outsourcing Cebu

Monday mornings are warm and happy
The day drains you to a zilch
On Tuesdays,
You wake up, cold and grumpy
But Wednesday's the worst
A reminder of numbered days of bliss
And then you fall
Fall in love (again) with Thursdays
Because she tells you about love
And then, Fridays happen.
She's the in-between
Reminding you of days borrowed
And a promise of happy tomorrows
Saturday's the bliss, just pure bliss
She's David Levithan's Realm of Possibilities
Sundays make you emotional
With old tunes ringing in your ear
It masks the dread you're feeling
In hope, you pretend everything'll work itself.
Maybe, it will.
Maybe, it won't.
And you spend the entire night in darkness
Hoping the next days will turn sunny and bright
But it doesn't.
It just doesn't.
So the week starts again.
And then you realize,
You're just the weekend girl
The one she'll forget about.

My Modern Day Dad

Vinces Leorna
Tax Semi-Senior

Overjoyed and weary, he held me in his hands
With generous love his bosom warms
To slumber his aching body dozed,
Now rests his weary eyes closed

A loud cry like a baby does I made
But love, for love, a touch he gave amidst evening's leafy shade
Hush-a-bye to crying I bid goodbye
His jaded mood now about to die

Diapers changed, milk prepared, and music played
All eyes on me, on other things he never cared
Our once peaceful home, now noisy he smirks
Yet by my side still, he persistently lurks

Constantly asked how his life has changed
With sarcastic remarks he claims it deranged
Little did other people know
It's this chaos he believes that makes him glow

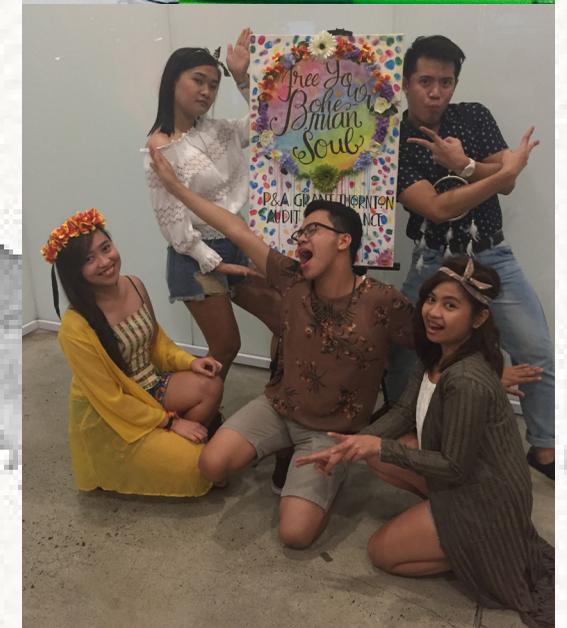

Rearing a child is nothing like snuggling in a feather bed,
Nor a fancy work like embroidery he said.
But all this he aced for he is fairer- fairer than the sea,
And for among ten million greatest their he dwells, who is a she.
